THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Editor.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1865.

THE NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Jonathan Worth, Esq.

OF RANDOLPH.

ELECTION THURSDAY NOV. 9th.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.—Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

THE NATIONAL UNION PARTY.

We acknowledge His Excellency, ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, to be the head and leader of the great National Union party. His reconstruction policy is at present the basis of that party, and we stand firmly upon it. This is the only party we acknowledge in this State.

Opposition to Gov. Holden.

The members of the Convention who favored the candidacy of Mr. Worth for Governor, as well as those who came from the various sections of the State who co-operated with them and approved their views, urged as an imperious reason why such a man as Mr. Worth should be run, the impossibility of inducing the body of the people to vote for Gov. Holden. They were fresh from the people—had put themselves to some pains to know their will, and had found such a fixed purpose of indifference and opposition to him, both on account of his past political course and his manner of executing President Johnson's policy, as to determine them not to go to the polls. To allow therefore the first popular election after the Convention, to go by default; to present to the country such a meagre vote in approval of the action of the Convention, as would thereby be brought out, a result which must have seriously affected the character of the State, led to their determination to urge Mr. Worth out.

Our information obtained since the canvass began, fully justifies the opinions which they entertained. In some sections there would scarcely have been any vote at all,—in others their votes would have been thrown away upon their peculiar favorites.

The necessity for running an opposition candidate having been determined, the next thing was the selection of the candidate, who it was agreed must have been a better Union man than Gov. Holden—one whose political record had been consistent, and one who could unite and bring out the Union vote of the State—all being for the Union. Hence the selection of Mr. Worth. The canvass so far proves their sagacity and sound judgment.

It was therefore no factious opposition to Gov. Holden—no "sore-head" irritation, but a settled conviction that the true interests of the State demanded it. We believe that they acted wisely. The vote for both will indicate more fully than might otherwise could have been obtained, the true Union feeling of the State, and the real anxiety of the people to resume their former relations to the government.

Should Mr. Worth be elected, as we believe he will, it will re-assure the whole country of the solid character of the Union feeling in the State, remove all doubt or fear as to the real character of the Governor, and it will start the State out on her mission, with an Executive possessing the entire public confidence, with a reputation as a politician and statesman unblemished by vacillation or inconsistency in his public life, and with financial abilities adequate to the trying circumstances of the times.

Finally, the election of Mr. Worth will check and uproot the narrow, selfish and illiberal spirit of the "straitest sect" party, which was showing itself so offensively in the management of State affairs. It will make all our people who have been made to feel that they were under the ban, that they are the equals of their fellow citizens and that they enjoy their confidence and sympathy.

Mr. Pennington of the Progress finding his advocacy of Gov. Holden's cause at home is doing him no good, has gone to Washington to write letters for his benefit. The company that Pennington keeps in Washington is no doubt surprised that Gov. Holden should be opposed.—Dr. Powell and John L. Pennington, what an interesting couple!

We are authorized to state that Dr. Thos. L. Banks withdraws his name from the canvass for Sheriff, on account of the ill-health of his family.

Hon. A. H. Arrington.

We call special attention to the card of a friend of Mr. Arrington who is authorized to speak for him. Mr. A. says he takes no part in the Governor's election.

There is said to be not a word of truth in the story that the Navy Department at Washington has ordered a large number of war vessels into commission on account of diplomatic complications.

ACQUITAL OF EMERSON ETHRIDGE.—Emerson Ethridge has been acquitted of the charges preferred against him before the Military Commission at Columbus, Ky., and is now at his home in Dresden, Tennessee.

The County Ticket.

We published on yesterday a ticket recommended by a number of citizens of the County, who are WORTH men, and who were unwilling to vote for any of those who had been previously announced. It seemed to be generally understood that all the County candidates heretofore announced, would vote for Gov. Holden. To them personally, there was no objection, but the support which would thereby be given to the spirit of "strait-sect-ism," presented an insuperable objection. But for this, they could most cordially have supported several of the gentlemen already announced. The object however, of voting for a man, is not to promote his personal interests—for it is doubtful whether any man is benefitted by putting him in any public office. While one has been benefitted, hundreds have been injured by it. We therefore never vote for a man as a compliment to him, or to promote his personal benefit, but purely for the public good. Guided by this, we cannot vote for a relation or warm personal friend, when we feel sure his views and course militate against what we deem to be the public welfare.

Already, it is charged by some of the other candidates, that this is our ticket. Very well we are ready to share our part of the responsibility. We certainly had some share in presenting to the people of Wake one of the best tickets which has been brought out for sometime, in the County. Their names however, were suggested and endorsed by many of the best citizens of the County. Let us look at it:

For the Senate—Nathan Ivey.

For the Commons—T. Jeff. Utley, P. A. Dunn and John J. Ir. McCullers.

How do you like it? There is not a city man on it, but the city has heretofore had more than its share. There is not a lawyer on it, but the lawyers of the city have no right to complain, for they have heretofore not been neglected; and there will be quite as many lawyers in the Legislature as necessary. They are all farmers, and that is the great interest to take care of,—but they are more—they are intelligent, business men. They are not politicians—so much the better; the country has already been cursed by them. We can and will vote for the ticket most heartily. Let the people of the County, the Worth men, the Vance men, the true conservative men rally to its support. Spread the circulars and the tickets!

Perhaps we ought to say, we regret that four or five of our personal friends, who were announced before this ticket, placed us in a position which prevents us from supporting them heartily. It is their fault, not ours. Perhaps they will be obliged to us not to vote for them.—If so, we shall not fall out.

Hon. Josiah Turner Jr.

Mr. Turner is unmistakably the choice of the Anti-Holden men of this District. The contest under the circumstances must be between Mr. Turner and Col. Russ. The principles and declarations of Col. Russ force the Anti-Holden men from him. Those who sustained Gov. Vance cannot vote for Col. Russ, but for Josiah Turner jr. Remember it is a contest between the liberal policy of President Johnson and the hide-bound, partizan policy of the "straitest sect" party. That is the true issue.

The Standard is specially anxious to defeat Mr. Turner. He has been kept from his pardon, and to prevent the exercise of generosity towards him by President Johnson every effort is made to defeat him.

We have not noticed the malicious attacks of the Standard. Mr. Turner is a thorn in its side, and the attacks of the Standard being well understood, can only promote his election. Let the friends of Mr. Worth rally to his support throughout the District.

The Standard pretends to justify the delay to pardon Mr. Turner upon the plea that the President could not do so on account of the character of the petition. The President is not responsible for the delay. The evidence is that Mr. Turner's petition had not reached the President's eye at least one full month after it was presented to Gov. Holden. It was kept in Dr. Powell's "breeches pocket" until the Attorney General drew it out of him. Nor can the character of the petition of Josiah Turner, jr., prevent the President's clemency. The President is magnanimous. He pardoned Mr. Josiah Turner, Sen., whose petition was of the same character with the petition of his son.

The petition of Josiah Turner, Sen., was as follows:

"Your petitioner asks the benefit of your Excellency's amnesty proclamation. He is 84 years of age, took no part in the war, because of his age, but would have taken part heartily for the South, had he been younger.

Your petitioner always voted against nullification, secession and the democracy that taught it.

Your obedient servant,

JOSIAH TURNER, SR.

Mr. J. T. jr., handed this to Gov. Holden, who said the President loved candor and he had no doubt the President would be pleased with the candor and frankness of the petition. Is the petition of Mr. J. Turner, jr. less candid and frank than his father's? Certainly not. Why then the difference! The petition of Mr. J. T. Sen., was endorsed and sent on to the President by the Governor. The petition of Mr. J. T. jr. was not approved and was sent to Dr. Powell and he retained it in his possession.

Colonel Lamb, of Norfolk, who commanded Fort Fisher when it was taken by the Federal forces, has been in Providence R. I., for some weeks. The Minnie Ball that he received in his hip during the struggle at Fort Fisher, has been extracted by a surgeon of that city.

Mr. Duncan, the State Loan Agent for Georgia, has negotiated a loan of $1,000,000 in New York city for that State at seven per cent., on the faith of its Provisional State Government.

Gov. Holden vs. Gov. Vance.

The violence with which Gov. Holden assailed Gov. Vance after the surrender to Gen. Sherman, must have been quite forgotten by the author of the eulogy upon Gov. Holden, in the Standard of the 2nd of Oct. last. That paper used the following language in regard to Gov Holden's magnanimity towards Gov. Vance. It said:

"And still further to show his magnanimity, the fact that Governor Vance is not now pining in prison, but is at home enjoying the society of his family and friends, is owing to Governor Holden's promptly urging his release upon hearing of the sickness of his family.

We do not deny that Gov. Holden urged Gov. Vance's release on account of the illness of his family, but that he would have been pining in prison until now but for Gov. Holden, we have no evidence. Indeed we are sure his release is to be attributed more to the magnanimity of President Johnson than to the magnanimity of Gov. Holden. Besides Gov. Vance had other friends whose influence was quite as potent with the President as Gov Holden's. Perhaps he wanted to atone in some way for his violent and unfeeling attack upon Gov. Vance after the surrender. Let the reader ponder the following:

"Davis has fled, Vance has fled, Smith has fled, secession is dead, treason has been extinguished in its own blood, and the old flag once more waves proudly over the capitol of every State. Thank God for it.—Standard, April 1865.

"Let those who are the authors of all the horrors through which we have passed, and those who during the last two years have identified themselves with the Davis and Vance depotisms, make up their minds to retire to private life.—We have no use for them. Politically, they are doomed men for all time to come.—Standard, April 18, 1865.

"Gov. Vance is a desperate Davisite. He was a true man at one time, but he has apostatized, and has since been following the glittering phantasm of the succession as President to Jeff. Davis."—Standard, April 18, 1865.

"Among such (apostates who have sinned against light and knowledge) we reckon Vance, Hale, J. M. Morehead, Gorrell, McAden, Little, Young, Haughton, Waddell, Hyman, J. W. Cameron, Mebane, and the like. And now we are expected to affiliate with these men and to submit to their rule. Never, if we can avoid it, so help us God."—Standard, May 4, 1865.

"The war Conservatives who supported Vance are as objectionable as the original secessionists, and those professed Union men apparently in good standing who are acting with or for these war Conservatives will bear watching. Forewarned, forearmed. Let the people be on their guard."—Standard, May 15, 1865.

"No one who has the smell of Davis or Vance about him should have office in North Carolina."—Progress.

"WELL SAID.—The triumph of the Union forces will have been in vain, if the adherents of these bad men and allowed to bear any controlling action in public affairs."—Standard, May 8th, 1865.

A reward of $25,0000 for Z. B. Vance, the rebel Governor of North Carolina, would go very far towards furnishing the rebellion in this State. Their are others who ought to be arrested and tried for treason, and we could name them in this article if we thought it nessecary.—Standard May 9, 1865.

"Let the Galled Jade Wince."

Since the appearance of an article from my pen, published in your issue of the 31st ult., the Standard youths have twice feebly essayed to "pitch in" to "New Yorker" by misrepresenting him as a "radical who is determined to take the stump for equality of the freedmen in North Carolina," &c. Now "New Yorker" does not favor any such unwise and disgusting policy nor has he said any thing of the kind, and if the juveniles of the Standard can not defend their ambitious and politic Mentor better from the charges against him, than by misrepresenting his accusers, his claims for the suffrage of his fellow citizens are weak indeed. That such "weak devices" should be resorted to is not surprising, when it is not nor cannot be even attempted, to purge the Governor from the charge of having been a violent and unqualified secessionist, until the hopes of the so called Confederacy began to decline. How a public man with such a record dare put himself before an honorable people as a Union man is a subject of wonder even to "New Yorker," who has witnessed some strange things in the political arena in his native State. Enough: "New Yorker," only waits to see the Standard candidate "hoisted by his own petan," and the seal of condemnation stamped upon demagogueism in the old North State.

NEW YORKER.

Ye devil, with a serious face, asked ye editors if the Provisional Governor had not something worse than the seven years' itch, since he has been itching so many years to be made Governor and scratching so hard for the election as to be compelled to put up with an appointment.—Woe unto Babylon, and 'tother places, for verily that itching cannot now be gratified. Selah.—Wilmington Journal.

The War of the Roses and the Joses.

Mr. Editor:—Old England had her war of Roses and we are having ours of the Joses.—There it was the House of Lancaster against the House of York—here it is the House of Wake against the House of Orange. There the feud was between kith and kin—here also, it is between brethren of the same political faith, the only difference being that which may be found in the words "strait" and "straitest;" and here I will say, by way of parenthesis that fear are entertained that another feud will arise between the Lexicographers—some contending that that which is strait cannot be made straiter, while on the other hand, others insist that the word may be qualified so as to make it strait or "straitest." In the event that the Lexicographers should get each other by the ears, your correspondent promises to remain neutral—reserving to himself the right only of throwing up his hat, and encouraging both parties by cries of "lay on McDuff." But I am wandering from my subject—the war of the Roses and the Joses. It is the duty of the impartial historian in noticing passed and passing events, not only to record them faithfully, but also to advert to the causes that gave rise to them. We are all sufficiently acquainted with the circumstances that brought about the unhappy feud between the House of Lancaster and York, and we are not less so with those that led to the present unhappy dispute between the Houses of Wake and Orange. But in order that kind persons may judge the better of the merits of the contending factions it will be well to see how they regarded and spoke of each other formerly; and for that purpose I will drop the parallel I have been pursuing, and will turn to the Standard, the then acknowledged organ of the once happy, but now torn and desolate family. I quote from the Standard of November 4th 1863.

"CAPTAIN TURNER IN RALEIGH.

Captain Turner, the Conservative candidate for Congress in this District, addressed a large audience in this City on Tuesday night last.

We will not do him the injustice to attempt a sketch of his remarks. He entertained his audience for some two hours, and was warmly cheered. The people of Wake are evincing much interest in the election, and we look with confidence for a large majority for Capt. Turner. We trust that our Raleigh friends especially will turn out and give him one of their largest majorities. The services of such a man in Congress will be invaluable."

Again, I quote from the Standard of November 11th, 1863:

"These gentlemen (referring to Mr. Turner, Mr. Gilmer and others,) and their friends are as keenly alive to the interest and honor of North Carolina as any in the army or out of it."

So spoke the Standard in 1863. What says Mr. Turner? He says he is as good a Union man now as he was in 1861, when Gov. Holden was voting for the ordinance of secession—that having been forced out of the Union by Gov. Holden and others, he was true to his native land—quotes the immortal lines of Scott, "lives there the man with soul so dead," &c., in justification, and calls upon all the friends of President Johnson's administration to rally around him. Thereupon the Josephs of the Standard, from their battery on Hargett street, replies by hurling at the Hon. gentleman's devoted head, bottle after bottle of Arnold's fluid—calls him the "so-called Hon. Jo. Turner" and other hard names. So the war progresses. Now, Mr. Editor, as a faithful chronicler of the war of the Joses, I shall form my judgment upon the merits of the several parties, not so much from what they may say or do in the heat of conflict, but upon their past record, and the Standard in 1863, speaking of the Hon. Jo. Turner, having said, "the services of such a man in Congress will be invaluable," I shall be guided thereby in the approaching election, and have no doubt a large majority of the voters of this District will arrive at the same conclusion.

VINDICATOR.

The Synod of North Carolina.

This ecclesiastical body has been in session in this town since Wednesday evening last until Saturday night at 11 o'clock.

The Rev. Colin Shaw was chosen Moderator, and E. Nye Hutchinson and H. G. Hill were chosen Clerks.

The usual business abjudicated before such bodies was transacted satisfactorily.

Charlotte was chosen as the place, and Wednesday after the 2d Monday in October next, the time of the next meeting of Synod.

During the session, the question of reunion with the Old School Assembly at the North, was discussed. Rev. Messrs. Jordan, Atkinson, McKay, Smith, and others, participating. The Synod decided to let the question stay where it is, without any action in the premises.

If political inconsistency be a virtue, then does Mr. W. W. HOLDEN merit the undivided support of the people of North Carolina. He has been on every side of every public question that has ever been discussed before the people of the State, or, at least, every public question of importance; and he has therefore been occasionally right. The great difficulty, however, has been that Mr. HOLDEN has never remained right. For instance, he voted us out of the old Union, and afterwards, through the columns of the Standard, pledged the "last man and last dollar" to the maintenance of the Confederate cause. How did he redeem that pledge? By suggesting that the government offer a reward of $25,000 for the apprehension of "Z. B. VANCE, 'rebel' Governor of North Carolina."—Wilmington Dispatch.

The Hon. Alexander H. H. Stuart, in his argument to prove the unconstitutionality of the "test oath," asks. "What is the right of suffrage worth if you are prohibited from voting for the man of your choice."

At the general meeting of the Stockholders of the National Express Company recently, Gen. Joseph E. Johnston was unanimously elected President.

THEY WILL REWARD HIM.—The Atlanta Intelligencer has the following:

President Johnson is reported to have spoken as follows to a gentleman to whom he had granted an interview:

"The Monroe Doctrine is all right. I believe in it. But there are greater principles at stake than those involved in that question. When the Union is restored it will be time for talking about foreign aggressions on this continent. I shall do all I can to make the Southern people happy, and to palliate the bitterness of their defeat."

To the Friends of Hon. A. H. Arrington in the Fourth District.

There is a report in circulation in some parts of the District, that Hon. A. H. Arrington is the "Holden Candidate"—was solicited to run for Congress by Gov. Holden—and has declared himself in favor of Gov. H.'s election. These reports are all false. Mr. Arrington steadily adheres to the purpose expressed in his card not to canvass the District—has taken no part in the Gubernatorial contest—and will not do so.

Mr. Arrington's friends are warned against the unjust and unfair charges that have been circulated to his prejudice. Let them stand by him in this contest as they have done heretofore—and he will be triumphantly elected. He has no paper to advocate his election and to reply to the misrepresentations, circulated against him. He relies upon those who have heretofore sustained him in every emergency, to rally to his support now, and his election will be beyond a doubt.

HIS LETTER TO ARTEMUS WARD.

Mr. Artemus Ward, Showman—Sur: The reason I write to you in pertikler, are bekaus you are about the only man I know in all "God's country" so-called. For sum several weeks i have been wantin tu say sumthin. For sum several years we rebs, so-called, but now late of said county deceased, hav been tryin mity hard to do sumthin. We didn't quite do it, and now its very painful, I assure you, to dry up all of a sudden and make out like we wasn't thar.

My friend, I want to say sumthin. I suppose there is no law agin thinkin it, dont help me. It dont let down my thermometer. I must explode myself generally so as to feel better. You see I'm trying to harmonize. I'm tryin to soften down my feelins. I'm endeavoring to subjugate myself to the level of surroundin circumstances, so-called. But I can't do it until I am allowed to say sumthin. I want to quarrel with sumbody and then make friends. I aint no giant-killer; I aint no Norwegian bar. I aint no boar-constrikter, but I'll be hornswaggled if the talking and the writin and the slanderin has got to be all done on one side any longer. Some of your folks have got to dry up or turn our folks loose. It's a blamed outrage, so-called. Aint your editors got nuthin else to do but to peck at us, and squib at us, and crow over us? Is every man what kan write a paragrat to consider us as bars in a cage, and he always a jobbin at us to hear us growl? Now you see, my friend, that's what's disharmonious, and do you jest tell em, one and all, e pluribus unum, so-called, that if they dont stop it at once or turn us loose to say what we please, why we rebs, so-called, have unanimously and jointly and severally resolved to—to—to—think very hard of it—if not harder.

That's the way to talk it. I aint a gwine to commit myself. I know when to put on the brakes. I aint a gwine to say all I think like Mr. Etheridge, or Mr. Addering, so-called. Nary time. No, sur. But I'll jest tell you Artemus, and you may tell it to your show: If we aint allowed to express our sentiments, we can take it out in hatin; and hatin runs heavy in my family, shure. I hated a man so once that all the hair cum out of my head, and the man drowned himself in a hog-waller that night. I kould do it agin, but you see I'm tryin to harmonize, to acquiesce, to bekam calm and sereen.

Now I suppose that poetikally speakin,

"In Dixie's fall,
We sinned all."

But talkin the way I see it, a big feller and a little feller, so-called, got into a fite, and they fout and fout and fout a long time, and every body all round kep hollering hands off, but kep helpin the big feller until finally the little feller caved in and hollered enuf. He made a bully fite I tell you, Selah. Well, what did the big feller do?—Take him by the hand and help him up, and brush the dirt off his clothes? Nary time! No, sur! But he kicked him arter he was down and throwed sand on him, and drug him about and rubbed sand in his eyes, and now he's gwine about huntin up his poor little property. Wants to kinfiskate it, so called. Blame my jaket if it aint enuff to make your head swim.

But I'm a good Union man—so called. I ain't to fite no more. I shan't vote for the next war. I ain't no guerrilla. I've done tuk the oath, and I'm gwine to keep it; bars for bein subjoogated and humityated, as Mr. Chase says, it ain't so—nary time. I aint ashamed of nuthin, neither, aint repentin, ain't axin for no one horse, short-winded pardon. Nobody needn't be playin priest around me. I aint got no twenty thousaud dollars. Wish I had. I'd give it to these poor widows and orfiuns. I'd fatten my own numerous and interestin offspring in about two minits and a half. They shouldent eat roots and drink branch water no longer. Poor, unfortunate things! to cum into this sublonary world at sich a time. There's four or five of 'em that never saw a sirkus nor a monkey show—never had a pocket knife nor a piece of cheese, nor a reesin. There's Bull Run Arp, and Harper's Ferry Arp, and Chikahominy Arp, that never seed the pikters in a spellin book. I tell you, my friend, we are the poorest people on the face of the earth—but we are poor and proud. We made a bully fight, Selah! and the whole American nation ought to feel proud of it. It shows what Amerikins can do when they think they are imposed on—"so called." Didn't our four fathers fite, bleed and die about a little tax on tea, when not one dast thousand drank it! Bekause they suksseded wasent it glory? But if they hadent I suppose it would have been treeson, and they would have been bowin and scrapin round King George for pardon. So it goes, Artemus, and to my mind, if the whole thing was stewed down it would make about half a pint of humbug. We had good men grent men, Christian men, who thought we was right, and many of 'em have gone to the undiskovered country, and have got a pardon as is a pardon. When I die, I'm mity willin to risk myself under the shadow of their wings, whether the climate be hot or cold. So mote it be, Selah!

Well, maybe I've said enuf! But I don't feel easy yit. I'm a good Union man, sertin and shure. I've had my breeches died blue, and I've bot a blue jacket, and I very often feel blue, and about twice in a while I go to a doggery and git blue, and then I look up at the blue seruleau heavens and sing the melancholy chorvas of the Blue-tailed Fly. I'm doing my durndest to harmonize, and think I could succeed if it wasent for sum things. When I see a blackguard going round the streets with a gun on his shoulder, why right then, for a few minutes, I hate the whole Yanky nation. Jerusalem, how my blood biles. The institution what was handed down to us by the heavenly kingdom of Massachusetts now put over us with powder and ball. Harmonize the devil! Ain't we human beings? Ain't we got eyes and ears and feelins and thinkin? Why the whole Afrikey has come to town, women and children and babies and baboons and all. A man can tell how far it is to the city by the smell [illegible] on the mile post. They don't work for us, and they wont work for themselves, and they'll perish to death this winter as shore as the devil is a hog, so called. They are now baskin in the summer sun, livin on roastin ears and freedom, with many fears that the winter will cum agin, or that easter cotton and solts nosts money. Some of 'em a hundred years old, are whinin around about gittin knowledge. The truth is, my friend, sumbody's badly fooled about this bizness. Somebody has drawed the elefant in this lottery, and don't know what to do with him. He's just thrown his agent pirate loose, and by-and-by he'll hurt sumbody. These niggers will have to go back to the plantations and work. I ain't wantin to support nary one of 'em, and when you hear anybody say so, you tell 'em 'its a lie,' so called, as I am going. I ain't got nuthin to support myself on. We fout ourselves out of everything except children and land, and I suppose the land are to be turned over to the negroes for graveyards.

Well, my friend, I don't want much. I ain't ambitious as I used to was. You all have got your shows and monkeys and sirkusses and brass bands and organs, and can play on the petrolyum and the harp of a thousand strings, and so on, but I've got one favor to ax of you. I want enuf powder to kill a big yaller stump-tail dog that prowls round my premises at night. Pon honor, I won't shoot any thing blue or black or mullatter. Will you send it? Are you and your folks so skeered of me and my foaks, that you won't let us have any ammynishun? Are the squirls and crows and black raccoons to eat up our little corn patches? Are the wild turkeys to gobble all round us with impunity? If a mad dog takes the hiderfoby, is the whole community to run itself to death to get out of the way? I golly! it looks like your people had tuk the rebelfoby for good, and was never gwine to git over it. See here, my friend, you must send me a little powder and a ticket to your show, and you will harmonize, sertin.

With these few remarks I think I feel better, and hope I haint made nobody fitin mad, for I'm not on that line at this time. I am trooly your friend—all present or accounted for.

BILL ARP, SO CALLED.

P. S.—Old man Harris wanted to buy my fiddle the other day with Confederik money. He said it would be good agin. He says that Jim Funderbuk told him that Warren's Jack had seed a man who had just cum from Virginny, and he sed a man told his cousin Mandy that Lee had whipped 'em agin. Old Harris says that a feller by the name of Mack U Million is comin over with a million of men. But nevertheless, notwithstanding, somehow or somehow else, I'm dubous about the money. If you was me, Artemus would you make the fiddle trade? B. A.

The question is, shall Jonathan Worth be placed at the helm of State—the man who resisted secession to the utmost and to the last extremity, or W. W. Holden, who was a secessionist and voted her out of the Union. Shall Worth, who tried to preserve the Constitution be elected or Holden, who attempted to destroy it, by plunging us into a four years war?—These are the questions the people will have to decide on the 9th inst. Holden the secessionist, the man who in the Convention voted North Carolina out of the Union and into a ruinous war—or Jonathan Worth, the man who protested against the whole measure from first to last? Mr. Holden by his vote as a member of the Convention is responsible for all the ruin, desolation and misery which has afflicted our unhappy country for the last four years. For that vote was the beginning of the "Iliad of our woes." While we are free to say Mr. Worth is not our choice, we can no longer hesitate between the two. We had hoped that Gov. Graham would have been in the field, but as we cannot be gratified, we unhesitatingly declare for Mr. Worth, and to-day place his name at the head of our columns. There are many reasons for our preference—for we think his record and claims are beyond comparison, but we are constrained to participate more actively in the canvass than we intended, by the course which the Standard has seen proper to pursue.

We are neither to be bullied nor intimidated into the support of any man—and if we cannot have a free choice, then we do not desire to see an election. And, besides, we are thoroughly Andrew Johnson in our feelings. We admire him profoundly. He has taken a position which raises him in our estimation to the pinnacle of human greatness, and stamp him unquestionably as the foremost statesman of the age. The assurance then on the part of the Standard, that our support of Mr. Worth will change Mr. Johnson's policy towards North Carolina, is a reflection on that great man's principles and character that calls for an indignant rebuke from ALL of his admirers.—Charlotte Times.

To the Voters of Wake County.

At the request of many voters, I am a candidate in this County for the House of Commons of the General Assembly.

The Convention requested the Governor to appoint a committee of three persons to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws for freedmen, and to specify what laws relating to them, ought to be repealed. He has done me the honor to designate me as one of them. This work, with other indispensable engagements, will so occupy my whole time as to for bid my mingling much if any, with the people.

I avail myself of this occasion to assure you of my grateful sense of your confidence recently expressed in electing me to the Convention. If I am honored again by your confidence, I shall strive to merit it by my services. Very respectfully yours,

71-tde. R. F. MOORE.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR: The friends of Jonathan Worth, having published the following handbill, will you please give it an insertion in the Sentinel, and oblige MANY VOTERS.

The National Union Ticket!

For Governor: JONATHAN WORTH, of Randolph County.
For Congress: JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., of Orange County.
For the State Senate: NATHAN IVEY.
For the House of Commons: T. JEFF. UTLEY, P. A. DUNN, JOHN J. L. MCCULLERS.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.

The friends of the Union and of the liberal policy of President Johnson, who are opposed to the policy of the "straitest sect" party, not satisfied with any of the candidates now before the people—all of whom, it is understood, will vote for W. W. Holden for Governor—offer you the above ticket. A vote for Gov. Holden, or for those who vote for him, is a vote for the "straitest sect" party. We cannot go it.

We offer you four gentlemen for the Legislature, all respectable farmers, intelligent business men, reliable and trustworthy. They are identified with your interests; they are not politicians nor seekers of office, and can be trusted. They have not been consulted, nor asked to be candidates. Without their knowledge they are brought before you, relying upon their public spirit to serve you if elected. Let us elect them whether they desire it or not. We have a right to claim their services.

1. They are friends and supporters of President Johnson's liberal policy, and opposed to the aims of the "straitest sect."
2. They are in favor of the early establishment of civil law, and the restoration of the State to the Union.
3. They are advocates of a general amnesty.
4. They are in favor of economy in the National and State Governments, and opposed to high taxes.
5. They are friends to the soldier, and in favor of relief for the people.
6. They are opposed to negro suffrage and to negro testimony against white people.

MANY VOTERS.

COL. JAMES R. LOVE.

Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Ashe, Alleghany, Watauga, Yancy, Mitchell, McDowell, Burke, Caldwell, Rutherford, Cleaveland, Polk, Henderson, Transylvania, Buncombe, Madison, Haywood, Jackson, Macon, Cherokee and Clay.
Oct. 25 1865.

TO THE VOTERS

Of the Fourth Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Orange, Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Wake, Johnson and Nash:

FELLOW CITIZENS:—I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election, precludes the possibility of a canvass. Indeed, in the present condition of the country, a heated political campaign should be deprecated by all. The particular measures that will claim the attention of the ensuing Congress, cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, idle speculations and precedent pledges are vain and unnecessary. There is one question however, which seems to be agitating to some extent the minds of the people both North and South, but which properly comes within the purview of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor, as no doubt all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law in the State.

If I am honored fellow citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests—to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights—and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will redound to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights both of person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.

Very Respectfully,
Your Obedient Servant,
A. H. ARRINGTON.

North Carolina Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

AT A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE Company on the 27th of September, an assessment of 15 per cent. was levied on all premium Notes in the office of the Company at the time the losses occurred, to be paid in three installments, viz: six, nine and twelve months from 1st October, 1865.

The amount of premium Notes on hand,	$220,000
" " Allowed Losses,	10,000
" " Unsettled do.	7,500

(There are some losses not yet reported, the amount of which, of course, cannot now be stated.)

The assessment may appear to be disproportionate to the amount of the losses; but the Directors, taking into consideration the changes in property by sale, without transfer of policies, by destruction during the war, &c., &c., do not think that more will be raised by it than will be needed to meet the actual wants of the Company.

There will be, necessarily some delay in the payment of the losses. It is hoped, however, that there will be no complaint on this account; especially, when it is recollected that payment in some cases, was tendered in Confederate currency and refused.

The Company is prepared to take risks as in former times, and on as favorable terms. Address all letters to the Secretary.

LOUISBURG

FEMALE COLLEGE.

REV. T. M. JONES, A. M., Pres't and Proprietor.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will begin on the second Wednesday in January, 1866.

Louisburg is a village seldom surpassed for health, intelligence, refinement and morality. It is in Franklin County, nine miles from Franklinton, on the R. and Gaston Railroad. Between these points there is a daily stage line, connecting with trains going North and South.

The College building, located in a beautiful grove, on an elevated site, is large, commodious and well ventilated. It will be thoroughly renovated, and fitted up with neat furniture and fire places in the dormitories. It is our purpose to establish for young ladies a school of the highest grade, affording superior facilities for the acquisition of a thorough and accomplished education.

With the advantages of a good library, a well selected Chemical and Philosophical apparatus, a competent Faculty, and large experience in connection with the Greensboro Female College, we hope, by a faithful discharge of duty, to merit a liberal share of patronage. Boarding pupils will live as members of the President's family. Terms reasonable, and will be made known in due time. Those desiring to send their daughters, will please address me, for the present, at Greensboro, N. C., and circulars will be sent.
